Apollo Health Street to Provide Accounts Receivable Management for Hazel Hawkins Memorial Hospital

Conshohocken, Penn. – Apollo Health Street, a developer of world-class solutions that tackle healthcare's toughest financial and IT challenges, announced today a new agreement with Hazel Hawkins Memorial Hospital of Hollister, California.

During the one-year partnership, Apollo will work to resolve assigned accounts with outstanding balances that are more than 90 days past due. This process will include billing and following up with third party insurance carriers on referred accounts in a timely manner, as well as challenging underpayments, rejections, and denials on zero balance accounts.

"We have extensive experience in all major billing platforms," said Bill Colgan, executive vice president of hospital services for Apollo. "Our process-driven staff ensures the best use of our proprietary tools so that follow-up to past due accounts is comprehensive and effective."

In addition, Apollo will update the hospital's operating system with corrected insurance information so that errors do not perpetuate across the system. The Apollo team will also support Hazel Hawkins' management and staff to identify process improvement initiatives that will optimize account resolution.

"Our main objective is to increase collections so that we can support our mission of providing excellent care," said Kristen Templeton, patient accounting director at Hazel Hawkins Memorial Hospital. "Their inclusive approach to finding resolutions on outstanding accounts receivable makes Apollo the right choice for our hospital to improve its bottom line."

Added Andrew DeVoe, CEO for Apollo Health Street: "Hazel Hawkins' focus on improving outstanding accounts receivable balances is a characteristic goal for many hospitals across the nation. We understand the importance of reducing days in Accounts Receivable and look forward to an outcome that will support the strong patient care patients receive at Hazel Hawkins."
